

Home-cooked freshly made dishes delivered to your door daily

Prompted by requests from our regular customers we are now offering a range of delicious freshly prepared meals with free home delivery throughout the Sid-Valley area.

In these very difficult times with the Government recommending that those over 70 self-isolate for many weeks, and as a family business with many valued employees though little or no guests at this time, we are extending a valuable service to the community whilst keeping our long-standing and loyal staff employed.

If you'd like us to include a daily newspaper in your order or a packet of your favourite sweets please call through your order and we can add these extra items.

The service will commence on Monday 31st March but please remember that we need your order by 4pm on Thursday 26th March.

How to order:

Simply enter the number of servings you wish to order and indicate which days you require delivery. Please note weekly orders must be received by 4pm on Thursday for delivery the following week. You may if you wish, repeat your order weekly until further notice.
